LODGE CLUB ROOM

Our Lodge Clubroom, commonly called, "The Bar" follows many traditions established during the days of colonial America.

In those early days our nation's taverns were the gathering places for citizens to refresh themselves, learn the thoughts and ideas of fellow Americans, and share in local celebrations appropriate for the time of year. They also shared opinions and of opportunities when gathering momentum for common worthy causes, as well as discussing many popular views of the day.

Often they delivered and heard opposite views, they entertained visitors passing through their area, they even resolved differences by dueling; thank heavens we seem to be immune to that today, and they learned from others what might be good ideas to explore for themselves. Taverns of the day were a learning and growing place without the formality of having a teacher, or facilitator, to lead group discussions, yet offering true education by sharing from experiences that benefited everyone.

Travelers regularly brought news from other 'cultural center' taverns of close proximity, as well as from far away towns and areas. This informal communications system eventually contributed to strengthen attitudes and desires for freedom lovers and those willing to commit themselves to growth.

It is incumbent for us to ask, if today's bar is any different. Not really! Just newer more technological topics because we still enjoy sharing our thoughts, ideas and even dreams amongst friends while enjoying the customs of the relaxed atmosphere our bar offers.

The camaraderie that exists during these enthusiastic sharing of "sea" stories, addressing a world of topics, some even about how each of us cook our own particular rendition of beef stew, or tacos. These kind of discussions often bring a sense of togetherness that can best be described as just another chance to enjoy a warming, understanding conversation. When we share ourselves in such an environment, we grant our approved considerations for the entire society to enjoy. Actions that truly make our world (Lodge) a terrific place to visit.

Lodge leaders need to be attentive when something of value is presented, and give hearty endorsements to new suggestions offered and easily identified as an immediate value to the Lodge.

Cheer on these bar patrons who bring us new ideas, but just keep the dueling pistols, swords, and other such combatant preferred weapons locked in the cabinets!

LEADING KNIGHT
Steve Smith

Well, the Charity Basket Project is over and this article is dedicated to those who helped in every way. So many people came together in a variety of ways and at various stages of this project is something that I will never forget. Thanks to each and every one of you, this project was once again a success.

I want to thank in particular, several people and groups for their efforts and generosity in raising and donating money to this project. First I would like to thank the Kampers for their outstanding fundraising efforts and generous donation of over $1,300. Next I would like to thank John and Cherri Peterson for their personal donation of $1,000. I also want to recognize Jim Allen's Numero Uno barbecue team for their donation of $300 toward the purchase of the boxes used to sort and deliver the food and toys to the families. I was also pleasantly surprised to bump into Toni Hartin in the grocery store when she handed me an envelope with $150 collected from her coworkers. Also, thanks to all of you who purchased raffle tickets and participated in the Ball in the Fall fundraiser.

I also want to thank the efforts of those who helped in the sorting and distribution of food. And I also want to thank the Elks Ladies for always coming through with the wrapping of the toys. Volunteering in this way is a fulfilling experience. Those of you who gave of your time to deliver the food to the families enjoyed the added experience of seeing many faces light up realizing that their holiday experience would be just a little bit brighter

By the way, I would be remiss if I did not give mention friends of our lodge. I would like to call your attention to David Pearson and Lister Rents. Dave donated the plastic bags used to sort the fruit distributed to the families as well as the labels used to organize the boxes. But that's not all. Dave also gave of his personal time to guide me toward a successful Charity Basket Project. And of course there's Lister Rents. The generous giving of their truck used to pick up and deliver the food from the U.S. Naval Commissary at Port Huenemme is absolutely special.

And last but not least, we received a heart felt $200 donation from a non-member named Mike White who is a friend of Dan and Karen Martyn. He felt so moved by what our lodge does in our community that he was compelled to bless us with his donation.

Now that the Charity Basket Project is behind me is time for me to look forward to another project. I'm talking about another day at the races. Excursions like these, and the Laughlin trip we had this summer put the fun back in fundraising I would like to see us have more of these events and the future, because I think they are what bring our members together and attract new members. So start looking for the sign-up sheet I'll have posted in the lounge and mark your calendars for Sunday, March 13, 2011. Those of you who remember when the Elks Ladies sponsored these events, they were always a fun time. I'll have more details on what will be taking place and the time of departure in future articles.

Once again thank you for support. Now it's time to get ready for ritual practice.

LECTURING KNIGHT Kira Wagner

January 2011, just saying that has a surrealistic feeling to it. A decade has passed in the new millennium and, as always, time continues to keep moving forward.

With the Elks, we have a unique opportunity. Since our "year" starts in April we have a chance for two "New Year's Resolutions". I trust that 2011 will see a renewal of all that we hold dear and that we inculcate the principals of Charity, Justice, Brotherly Love and Fidelity. As a side note, when I first became a member, I had to look up the word "inculcate" and found that it fit so much in life. Although as a youth, I would have used the term "beating one over the head" and sometimes, even today, it could be viewed as "beating a dead horse". However, I digress.

In its entirety our mission statement reads: "To inculcate the principles of Charity, Justice, Brotherly Love and Fidelity; to recognize a belief in God; to promote the welfare and enhance the happiness of its Members; to quicken the spirit of American patriotism; to cultivate good fellowship; to perpetuate itself as a fraternal organization, and to provide for its government, the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks of the United States of America will serve the people and communities through benevolent programs, demonstrating that Elks Care and Elks Share."

The significance of that statement is awe-inspiring and I believe that, in spite of our differences (opinions, actions, beliefs...), we come together for the good of each other and all those within our sphere of influence.

As a TEAM, we work toward increasing our charitable contributions, the well-being of each member, continued development of our communities' youth, instilling pride and support for our country and those who serve to protect, and more...much, more! Additionally, we have fun doing it.

I am grateful to you for your contribution – at whatever level. Without your membership – we would be less effective. I wish for each of you a year filled with opportunity and a renewed sense of hope.

To those that have the time to be more actively involved – a special wish that you find the road smoother this year than it has in the past and that you have the vision and fortitude to achieve the goals we have set forth at the lodge. In Brotherly Love, Kira Wagner

While the history of our bars and taverns can be colorful, today we must remember that having a bar in our Lodge is only an accommodation allowed us through special licensing by the sovereign State of California. As such, we need to have activity and behavior rules that acknowledge we are in compliance with their laws and regulations.

Whenever they check, they assess us as a "club" with associated lounge/bar privileges. Not a licensed bar with an attached Lodge. The Lodge is our primary business.

MICRO MANAGING

Today micro-managing is described by many as a reviled phrase that interferes or distorts many planned efforts and programs. Managers with responsibilities for developing programs will sometimes act by involving themselves within work assignments they've initiated, and therefore reduce the effectiveness and the desired positive attitude of those who often have already agreed to an assignment.

Does asking someone to perform a task, then telling them in detail how it should be done assure accomplishing anything worthy? Probably not! Frequently a demeaning attitude of, "I should have done it myself surfaces" and subsequently a breakdown in communications is often the consequence.

Such breakdowns can lead to people not wanting to accept any responsible tasks because they don't relish being second guessed. Especially when those who are perceived as senior display their willingness to intrude into plans which suggest change. Retrospective counseling and detailed planning are always valuable and they should, and can, be shared without an appearance of micro-management.

In our volunteer society we need all the people we can gather to accept areas of decision making in helping continuing a healthy and prosperous Lodge. Therefore it is incumbent on each of us to extend our appreciation by being ready to favorably respond to committee chairpersons, Officers, and those willing to extend themselves on our Lodge's behalf.

They have said, "YES!" Now, let's help them! It is our collective responsibility to prepare for the coming years by aiding those who wish to serve our Lodge as leaders in the future. It may not be wise to put hurdles in their paths.

CHARITY'S SUCCESS IN 2010

While this article is being prepared before the actual completion of our 2010 Christmas Baskets program there is no uncertainty that anything but SUCCESS has been accomplished.

For months, Esteemed Leading Knight Steve Smith has applied extreme and encouraging pressure on himself to accomplish a high level of success due to goals that virtually mushroomed this year because of local degrading economic times.

For the first time in many years one could easily see the often discussed severe economic crunch was here – in

Thousand Oaks. Even in the Lodge, as a group we had difficulties in generating enough money from raffle sales to earn a worthy profit for the Christmas Basket program's needs. Yet, Steve wen on staging his performances of pulling rabbits from hats to meet our needs. He worked tirelessly and hard while his spouse, Pam, was continually at his side.

Be sure to offer a warm and sincere, "Thank you" when you see him.

HAPPY NEW YEAR!

A Remembrance

We Just had Veterans Remembrance Month and I experienced something I'd like to share. There was a movie that Kevin Bacon made about a Marine who escorts soldiers who have died in battle home.

Being in a wheel chair I was the first to board the plane home from my father's house in Tacoma/Seattle. As I was being brought on the plane, I heard the flight attendant and pilot taking about H.R. on this flight. He asked her if it was military and she said yes. He asked if there was an escort. Right after me an Army Sergeant entered the plane perfectly dressed. He talked a bit with the pilot. He talked as if the soldier he was escorting was still alive. The pilot told him he had the toughest job in the military and thanked him for what he's doing.

About 30 minutes into our flight some commotion started with the flight attendant making many trips to the flight deck. I heard them talking that the family on board was the father, mother, wife and 2-year daughter of the soldier. The family was upset that they could not see their son loaded onto the airplane and asked if could anything be done. Two hours went by and we landed in L.A.

On the intercom we were told to be patient that all air ground traffic was being held for us. As we approached our gate we stopped short and the pilot again got on the intercom.

He stated that he had stopped short of our gate to make special announcement. He told us that we have a passenger on board who deserves our honor and respect. He could not give us his name, but he was a soldier who recently lost his life in Afghanistan. The Private is under your feet in the cargo hold. Escorting him today is Army Sargent XXX XXX. Also on board are his mother, father, wife and daughter. Your entire flight crew is asking for all passengers to remain in their seats to allow the family to exit the aircraft first.. We continued the turn to the gate, came to a stop and started I guess shutdown procedures. A couple of minutes later the cockpit door opened. The captain looked at all the passengers in their seats and as the family got up and gathered their things, a passenger slowly started to clap. Moments later more passengers joined in and soon the entire aircraft was clapping. Words of "God Bless You, I'm Sorry, Thank You, Be Proud" and other kind words were uttered to the family as they made their way down the aisle and out of the plane.

They were escorted down the ramp to finally be with their loved one. Many passengers thanked the pilot. He said nothing he could do could bring the soldier back. Looking out the window I could see the flag draped coffin being loaded into a hearse, with the family looking on.

I never served in the Military and I kick myself now especially as an Elk. These men die for us. They don't know us, but they were following orders. All we can do is remember them, and pray for them. My Mom always told my sister and I that a good way to exercise the heart is to reach out and help another up. Thank you for reading.

HAPPENINGS AROUND THE LODGE-

Pat VonWittenberg Konejo Kampers

Kenney Grove Turkey Feast

Kinda wonder why attendance at this function has dwindled. A few years back, we filled the entire park, but no more. We had only 15 rigs this year. However, it diminished the fun – not one bit.

The "Chain Gang" as the wagon master group has named themselves, made up of the Drakes, Collerans, LaFarrs and Kudras had everything organized to the max.

Our national travelers, Pam and Gene Ewald arrived on Wednesday. Numerous tales of their extensive travels made some of us very envious. The change in Gene's attitude since Pam came into his life is amazing. He is no longer a grump, but still delights in grouching at me. I think I'm his favorite target.

Honestly one cannot determine which of Gene or Ed Colleran are the most eager to play poker. Gene was at the poker table first thing in the morning, often sitting there alone – just waiting.

Speaking of poker players, Jim Moye has become an eager participant. Nothing amazing about that, he had a game going which developed the largest pot ever seen on the table. There was a pile of coins larger that a dinner platter and at least an inch deep with green showing at the bottom. At the end, Jim won this pot and when Kathy walked up he proudly announced, "Honey, I've just paid off the house!" The fink didn't even bother to count the winnings. Too bad Ed had not arrived yet with his scale that he weighs his pouch. Kathy was observed struggling to carry Jim's bag back to their rig.

Our loyal motel kampers, Scott and Crystal Dool joined in without a problem. It is always a pleasure to have them with us.

It was good to see Steve and Sue Briggs, friends of the Drakes again. Since we were missing one of our retired firemen, namely Mike Flannery, Steve is still active and tended our campfires extremely well. Not sure how much Jim Mullen contributed but believe he had a hand in fire maintenance also. Deb is still working on the Briggs to become members, but Steve is busy as is Sue. Deb thinks she'll bring them round when the time is right. Anyone out there have any doubts about that?

Believe it or not, both Jim and Ruth arrived together. As I recall, the last time Jim showed up alone because Ruth was off gallivanting around the country someplace. Since Ruth is also a sewer/crafter it's always fun to compare notes. In fact, she had discovered a new technique that she was going to show me, unfortunately time slipped away – leaving me still wondering what magical item she was creating.

delightful lady. I'm not easily impressed, but was truly impressed by Denise. This woman had never met a one of us, yet she volunteered to say the closing prayer and did a great job. Certainly hope to see a lot more of her. (She ain't no bimbo, Steve – giggle)

Marva and Johnny D was among us again. It's always great to have them with us. Johnny has a great sense of humor and isn't a bit reluctant to let 'er rip. Never mind the fact that both of them are excellent cooks.

Thank goodness we've had some different members step up to the plate for next year's officers, mostly. Joel Erickson will be President, Jim Moye, Vice President, Deb Drake, Treasurer and Jessica Stull Secretary. Unfortunately, I'm still on the hook if Jessica isn't at the campout. Pray she attends the majority!

I had mentioned in last month's article that I would be coming to the Lodge from the campout to participate in the program by Playboy Mansion Chef William Carter. It was SO WORTH IT. In my never to be humble opinion, it is the absolute best function I've ever attended. Not only is Chef Carter easy on the eyes, he has a fantastic sense of humor, and a mountain of knowledge. When using aluminum foil, do you know which side should be on the outside? I didn't, and learned I've been doing it wrong forever. The DULL side should be out to absorb the heat – not the shiny side which reflects. Who woulda thunk?

It's my understanding that a presentation by another well known Chef may be in the planning stage. It's a lead-pipe cinch, if even remotely possible, I'll BE THERE!!!

Along with our Christmas Cheer Program/Christmas Basket Program or whatever name you want to give it, we supply a complete Christmas dinner and other staples for needy families in our area. Also every child receives a gift. Past experience showed us it's hard to buy for a teenager so this year Beverly Reis took it apon herself to take up a collection from our members. She went out and bought gift cards from Best Buy or a department store that a girl would like. Beverly did quite well. She raised $380.00. In adidition on the gift wrapping day, she again saw a need and purchased gifts for infants and small children. We would like to acknowlege those who gave. In late 1944, it seemed that the war in Europe was all but over. Hitler's vaunted Wehrmacht was on the run, and some even thought that the war would be over by Christmas. However on December 16th 1944, the German Army launched a massive surprise offensive in the Ardennes Forest, taking the Allies by surprise. The result was the largest land battle of the war, Known as the battle of the Bulge. Lasting through some of the coldest weather on record, the Germans were finally turned back well after the new year.

Report from the Grand Secretary

2009-2010 California had a loss of membership to a tune of 2,343. Only gain in membership was New Jersey of 235 and Texas of 57. Although California Charitable contributions hit $38,900,931. Total of all States $306,662,378. United States Government measures our donated hours of labor at $20.85 per hour and allows us .55 cents per mile.

We had two new Lodges instituted this past year Clayton, NM, No.2865 on 9/19/2009 and Mandarian/St. Johns, Fl, No.2866 on 6/26/2010.

2011 membership Dues notices will be going out soon. We need latest address and phone numbers and E-Mail information. If you have moved or changed your phone number, gone to cell phone only and got rid of your land line and or changed your e-mail provider please I beg you to call the office so we can update our records. We get many Antlers returned in the mail and when we do a mass mailing we get allot returned. We only have on file what was last given to us. We have a first place winning web site with the Elks organization. It would be a shame if you do not receive what our Web Masters put out for the members to view. Kira Wagner works hard on our web page and if you don't look at it or tell your friends to look your doing them and yourselves an injustice.

At the mid-term Board of Trustees meeting the board not to increase the annual assessment. See not everything is going up:)

With my father in Tacoma, Washington and my mother in Salida, Colorado, there are many times I turn to my Elk family. Family is what you get when you join this organization. And like any family there are those you're closer with than others, but in the end your still family. There is nothing you wouldn't do for them, if possible.

This Thanksgiving was spend with my Elk family. To set the tone we had the family of Alan Hardie with a table of ten right down the middle of the lodge room. Exalted Ruler, Harry Brockwell and First lady Madeline sat at the same table. (Allan being a long time member rates that type of company). When entering the room Mrs. Hardie would introduce everyone to you and you could not leave without remembering every-one's name. It reminded me of the Walton's. All the other tables fanned off the side of their table. The PER, Terry Gicking's girl friend sang a song and said grace. It was wonderful!!!

I shared a table with the PER, Bill Sternberg and PFL, Carol and PER, Robert Thornton and PFL, Margaret. The food was very good. Jerry Serota and Terry Gicking along with their crew deserve a round of kudos from those that attended. Our Bar manager Corinne Eddy had her eye on the event, the whole week prior. She made sure nothing was over looked.

Next year why cook and be stuck in the kitchen. Unless it's our kitchen and you have lots of help and do not need to be in it so long. Instead have Thanksgiving dinner with your Elk family.

Happy New Year! It is difficult to believe 2010 has ended. We don't know if you are making a New Years resolution or not but we always do and this year is no exception. We think that we all have wonderful expectations for the New Year and that is great. The thought of a new beginning brings new hope.

We must apologize for not acknowledging the wonderful people that made such a wonderful Halloween dinner. I want to thank Beth Kozlowski who headed such a great crew. The decorations and table settings were by Robert Jones, Angie Prizzi and Sharon Baker. Kathy Ryder, Niki and Rich Case, Steve Kozlowski, Beth and Dan Kozlowski, and Marva D-Ambrogio prepared the food. Thank you all for a very nice evening.

The ladies Christmas party was well-attended event with over 75 ladies attending. The event was co-chaired with Alice Kennedy and Patricia Peterson. We would like to thank Alice Kennedy, Patricia Peterson, Cornelia Meehan, Sally Claunch, Angie Prizzi, and Sharon Baker for doing a wonderful job decorating for our party. The food was great thanks to Tom Ryder, Chet Kozlowski, Al Koemmpel, Ken Krabel and Steve Smith. Our fantastic servers were Rick Eddy, Robert Koeritz, Robert Jones, Dan Martyn, Leo Rodriguez, David Stull, Paul Wagner and David Naccarto. We had Santa (AKA Terry Gicking) who gave presents to the ladies and took pictures with them. A fun time was had by all.

Shirley Kozlowski's birthday was December 12. At our Christmas party we surprised Shirley with a bouquet of roses. She has done so much for us over the years.

The next ladies event will be our Major Projects Dinner in February.

Have a healthy and prosperous New Year! The Elks Ladies' Board
